(A Saudi Closed Joint Stock Company) NOTES TO INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE THREE MONTH PERIOD ENDED MARCH 31, 2015 (Saudi Riyals)

1. ACTIVITIES

Saudi Home Loans Company (SHL) (the "Company") is a Saudi closed joint stock company registered in Riyadh, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia under commercial registration No. 1010241934 dated Dul Al Hejja 22, 1428H (corresponding to January 1, 2008). The Company also operates under Saudi Arabian General Investment Authority (SAGIA) license no: 102030072425-01 dated 23 Rajab 1430H (corresponding to July 16, 2009).

The principal activities of the Company is to finance the purchase of houses and residential land and apartments in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, financing of real estates that are developed by all companies operating in the real estate development and financing the establishment of commercial and industrial projects.

2. BASIS OF PREPARING THE INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The accompanying interim financial statements have been prepared on the basis of historical cost in accordance with the accrual concept, and prepared by complying with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

Items appear in the interim financial statements of the Company in Saudi Riyals which is the functional and disclosure currency of the Company.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a) Use of estimates -

The preparation of the interim financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting standards requires the use of estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the interim financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results ultimately may differ from those estimates.

b) Cash and cash equivalents --

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at bank.

c) Finance lease investments --

Finance lease investments represent notes receivable from customers on finance lease. Leases are classified as finance lease whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee.

d) Provision for lease losses --

The Company reviews its problem lease contract receivables on a monthly basis to assess whether specific provisions for impairment should be recorded in the statement of income. In particular, considerable judgment by management is required in the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows when determining the level of provisions required. Such estimates are necessarily based on assumptions about several factors involving varying degrees of judgment and uncertainty, and actual results may differ resulting in future changes to such provisions.

e) Non-current asset held for sale --

Represents properties acquired in satisfaction of debts and management's intention is to sell these properties in the near future. Properties available for sale are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value.

f) Property and equipment--

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Expenditure on maintenance and repairs is expensed, while expenditure for betterment is capitalized. Depreciation is provided over the estimated useful lives of the applicable assets using the straight line method. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of the estimated useful life or the remaining term of the lease. The estimated useful lives of the principal classes of assets are as follows:

	Years
Leasehold improvements	10 years
Motor vehicles	4 years
Furniture, fixture and office equipment	4-10 years
Computers and software	3-5 years

g) Deferred origination fees --

Deferred origination fees comprises of the unamortized portion of commission paid to a shareholder for deals originated through their channel. This fee is amortized using the straight-line method over the period of the respective lease contracts.

h) Accrued expenses and other payables --

Accrued expenses and other payables include rent received from customers in advance, security deposits and unapplied receipts from the customers.

i) Impairment --

At each balance sheet date, the Company reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognized as an expense immediately.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset (cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized as income immediately.

j) End-of-service benefits --

End-of-service benefits, as required by Saudi Arabian Labour Law, are provided in the interim financial statements based on the employees' length of service.

k) Zakat and income tax --

The Company is subject to the Regulations of the Directorate of Zakat and Income Tax ("DZIT") in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Zakat is charged to the Saudi shareholders' equity account while income tax is charged to the foreign shareholders' equity account. Zakat and income tax are provided on an accrual basis. The zakat charge is computed on the zakat base. Income tax is computed on adjusted net income. Any difference in the estimate is recorded when the final assessment is approved, at which time the provision is cleared.

l) Provisions --

A provision is made when the Company has a legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

m) Revenue recognition --

Finance leases income is calculated using the effective yield method which recognizes income based on the accrual method. Unearned finance income represents unearned income on leases and is deducted from the balance of notes receivable resulting from leases, which represents the remaining leases balance.

Lease finance income is recognized over the term of the lease using the effective yield method. On certain leases, the Company charges a non-refundable front-end fee which is recognized as income when received.

Service fees are accrued on a time proportionate basis, as the services are rendered and are recorded net of related expenses.

n) Operating expenses --

The Company follows accrual basis of accounting to record the operating expenses and recognized as expenses in the statement of income in the period in which they are incurred. Expenses that are deferred for more than one financial period are allocated to expenses over such periods using historical cost.

o) Foreign currency transactions --
